To increase the reimbursement revenue percentage. The District's percentage is currently seventy-percent.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. SEMI Coordinator will look to increase the consent percentage from ninety-four percent to one hundred percent. There are several SEMI eligible students that have yet to provide consent. This undoubtedly compromises the District's ability to achieve the necessary ninety-percent reimbursement. 2. SEMI Coordinator will meet with related service providers to ensure that logging is up-to-date. 3. SEMI Coordinator will look to assign caseloads to certificated staff. One related service provider is not certificated. 	Ms. Drury, SEMI Coordinator Mr. Curioni, Director of Special Services Special Services Administrative Secretaries	March 30	Compliance reports Sign-in sheets for all SEMI-related professional development indicates mandated staff have received training Related services caseloads for the 2019-2020 school year.
